

"THE VASSAL OF THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT"

DESIGN CLASS OF THE
HIGH SCHOOL AIDS
RED CROSS

One of the most successful Red Cross benefit organizations of the city, perhaps, is that of the design class of the Ogden high school which has made its headquarters until Christmas in the "Little Shop" on Twenty-fifth street under direction of Miss Carrie V. Knapp, instructor in art at the Ogden high school and supervisor of the city schools. This "little shopful" of appropriate Christmas gifts is distinctive and artistic. It displays handpainted gifts of various sorts which are of a high grade of merit and workmanship. The design class has been working industriously for some time under Miss Knapp's direction and, with the assistance of Miss Thelma Woodmansee, a former student at the high school, has turned out a variety of useful and attractive articles.

The members of the design class are Venus Williams, Jennie Smith, Meda Stone, Virginia Ellis and Doris Watson. Miss Knapp has personal charge of the shop and is being assisted by Mrs. Luke M. Wright and Miss Lophelia Runyon. The shop has been donated, rent free, by the Browning Bros., company as a contribution to the Red Cross work and an effort will also be made to secure the electric lighting on the same basis.

The idea of opening the little shop for the benefit of the Red Cross was conceived by the design class of the high school. Some weeks ago work was started on the articles to be sold and quite a number were produced. The proceeds of the sale will be turned over to the Ogden chapter to be used as the need may arise.

Howard now has the laugh on those who took his "busher" team earlier in the season.

Dr. Ernest Kunwald and wife. The Cincinnati Symphony orchestra director—Dr. Ernest Kunwald—faces internment as an enemy alien if he does anything inimical to the national interest. MODERN METHOD OF DEALING WITH SIN

The most of the people in Ogden have adopted the modern method in dealing with evil and sin. This is a most comforting method if you can do it. It lies in merely denying that there is any guilt or deadly power in evil or sin. To these what the churches call sin is but ignorance, weakness or deception. It is either mental or fraud. Ignore it and the whole moral problem is solved. The world is filled with this idea today. The thought in it is the theme of the Sunday evening sermon in Presbyterian church on the anti-Christian theories of Christmas as seen in the common life about us today.

SAILOR JACK SMITH TO MEET DOWNING

Developments in the Jim Downing-Sailor Jack Smith bout at the Eagles' gym next Tuesday indicate that these boys are getting up a man-sized opinion of each other's inability to do any damage and expect to put over a kavo slam most any time after the third session. The Sailor is going after his training as though he had a hundred thousand dollar purse hung up with Jess Willard across the ring and Downing is also working himself.

Downing however, thinks it will be a surprise party instead of a boxing match if he doesn't put the Sailor down in four rounds. "I will be the most surprised chap that ever came from Tremonton," he said today. "If the Sailor doesn't go to sleep before the fifth round. He can fight, maybe so, but I am confident that I can stop him in the approved fashion and nothing more need be said."

Smith is also quite confident that he can deliver a sleeping potion to Downing's brain and is working on this theory. "I have been in quite a number of tough scraps and this Downing boxer doesn't seem any worse than many of the others. I will get his number early in the fight and the fans will see a big man do a neat drop when this boy goes down."

Manager Carille will make arrangements for the accommodation of a record-breaking crowd at the gymnasium Tuesday.

Maybe you think that the Russians are doing nothing nowadays but revolting and counter-revolting. But there's another popular diversion—seceding from Russia.

Finland, Siberia and Crimea have all declared republics. Poland has set up a kingdom; Ukraine has declared an independent nation and Caucasia has announced its intention to rule itself.
